

Compression Operator and Some Minimization Problems

Hosien Said Moghadam

Mathematics Department, University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh, WI 54901

In this talk we introduce the notion of compression operator for a partially ordered set and discuss its power for solving some minimization problems on sets, generally known as the Kruskal - Katona type problems, and on graphs including bandwidth and edgesum problems.