

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

QUANTITATIVE APPROACHES TO SOCIAL JUSTICE IN HIGHER EDUCATION

MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 2022 | 3:00-4:30 PM ET | ZOOM

Register here: <https://bit.ly/cos-topaz>

Chad Topaz, Ph.D.

Co-Founder & Executive Director of Research Institute for the Quantitative Study of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity, Inc., (QSIDE)

Professor

Department of Mathematics and Statistics,
Williams College

Chad Topaz, Ph.D., (A.B. Harvard, Ph.D. Northwestern) is an applied mathematician and data scientist. His current research applies quantitative tools to expose and remedy social injustice, and is based out of the Institute for the Quantitative Study of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity (QSIDE), which he co-founded. Dr. Topaz is also Professor of Mathematics at Williams College and, previously, at Macalester College, where his research on complex and nonlinear systems has been supported by the National Science Foundation from 2006-2021.